Introduction

This booklet contains the proposed fees and charges for Council services from 1 July 2020 to 30 September 2020.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic Council has implemented a range of programs to support the community and business. The Community Support Plan includes providing fee relief to users of our services by maintaining 2019/20 pricing for the first three months of the financial year. Deferring the fee increases until 1 October 2020 provides savings of $0.7 million for the community.

New fees have been included for Bilarong Hall and the recently renovated rooms in Manly Youth and Community Centre. Fees for these facilities were not set for 2019/20.

Council's Business Support Plan includes waiving fees for environmental health inspections, fire safety checks and footpath merchandise up to 30 September 2020. Fees have also been waived for outdoor dining until 31 December 2020. This will assist local businesses providing savings of $0.8m as they recover. The actual fees are reflected in the July-September pricing, however will not be levied on businesses using the service up to September 2020.

Glen Street Theatre and the Domestic Waste Service pricing is at the rear of the document. Glen Street Theatre's ticketing is adjusted on calendar year basis. As such pricing is from 1 July to 31 December 2020 and 1 January to 30 June 2021. The pricing of the remaining services of the Theatre are adjusted on 1 October 2020. The column header indicates the period to which the fee applies.

The Domestic Waste Service is funded from an annual charge. This charge applies as at 1 July 2020 and is based on the cost of the service for the 2020/21 financial year.

Under s356 of the Local Government Act, Council will offer a subsidy to ratepayers equivalent to 50% of the increase in Domestic Waste Charges. This subsidy totals $2.140 million.

The full cost of the service is reflected in the Fees and Charges booklet and the subsidy will be applied to the charge.
